Day One: Arrival in Marseilles. Private transfer to Avignon. Accommodations: La Mirande, the essence of Provence captured in a small luxury hotel located adjacent to the Palais des Papes.

Day Two: Morning walking tour of Avignon including a private tour of the Palace of the Popes. Afternoon at leisure in Avignon. Accommodations: La Mirande

Day Three: Golf at Pont Royal in Mallemort, 30 minutes from Avignon. Afternoon self-drive tour of the villages and countryside of Provence. Accommodations: La Mirande

Day Four: A Day in Provence: Francois will escort you on a memorable private wine tasting and village tour to include Chateauneuf-du-Pape and a leisurely lunch, Provence style. You'll see Roman winery ruins and impossibly charming villages, such as Gigondas, where some of the finest Grenache-based Rhone blends are produced. Enjoy tastings at leading wine cellars, such as Beaucastel and Chateau La Nerthe. You'll even partake in a friendly game of petanque. In the evening, transfer to Salon de Provence where you will join Ghyslaine at her home in preparing a complete meal. Enjoy dinner and gastronomy-focused conversation. Accommodations: La Mirande

Day Five: Morning excursion to St. Remy de Provence, which has not changed much since the days of Van Gogh, and Les Baux de Provence, a unique mountaintop village. In St. Remy, you'll visit famed chocolatier Joel Durand, among other epicurean stops. Drive to Gordes, one of the most exceptionally beautiful and charming villages in Provence. Accommodations: La Bastide de Gordes.

Day Six: Morning private guided tour of Gordes. Enjoy the fine views from your perch on the edge of the plateau of Vaucluse, overlooking the hills of the Luberon. Included will be a visit to the nearby 12th-century Abbey of Senanque, which is still occupied by Cistercian monks. Afterwards, drive to Brignoles for challenging golf at Barbaroux, a pure golf experience amidst the pine forests and vineyards of Provence and the only Pete Dye design in Europe. Continue on to Mougins. Accommodations: Le Mas Candille in Mougins, a small luxury hotel and spa in an incomparable setting where you may take dinner in its Michelin star gastronomic restaurant

Day Seven: Personalized guided cultural and shopping tour of the Riviera to include any of the following potential destinations – Cannes, Nice, Monaco, or St. Paul de Vence. Accommodations: Le Mas Candille

Day Eight: Morning Golf at Terre Blanche Golf Club/Chateau Course with fine views of the villages of Fayence and Callas. Afternoon at leisure. Accommodations: Le Mas Candille

Day Nine: A Day in Nice. Morning market tour, cooking lesson and lunch with the chef and proprietor of L'Ane Rouge, one of the finest restaurants in Nice. Afternoon at leisure in Nice. Accommodations: Le Mas Candille

Day Ten: Morning Golf at Cannes Mougins. Afternoon at leisure. Accommodations: Le Mas Candille
